Band Room News

Barry Beardmore

The band sends its condolences to the family of Barry Beardmore, following his sudden death last month. Barry was for many years the trustee and then treasurer of the Silver Prize Band Social Club and was instrumental in saving the club (including our rehearsal room) after its temporary closure in the mid-1990s. He was also a great supporter of the band.

Lily Dog

The band also sends its condolences to Lisa following the loss of her lovely 'emotional-support' dog, Lily.

Tony Perry

The band would like to congratulate our principal Bb Bass player, Tony, on reaching half a century in age on the 26th November.

Carolling

Rob has done a risk assessment to support groups of up to six players to play carols to friends and neighbours. In summary, the considerations are to a) stay safe yourself by keeping a minimum of 2m apart (including the audience) and b) not becoming a focus for others to break lockdown rules (if people leave their gardens and start mingling, we should stop playing). If you plan to play some Christmas carols outside, please email Rob (dr.robert.stansfield@outlook.com) for a copy.

Rob also has (with the gracious permission of Debbie), the set of training band carol books in safe keeping. If you plan to play in groups, please contact Rob with the parts that you need (remember, no sharing of music) and he will post them to you (or you can collect them). Please be wary of the wrath of Debbie lest any carol books be damaged! Obviously, there are a limited number of Melody books available, so if you are planning to play solos, please just use the free carol music that Sharon has emailed to everyone.

Band Rehearsals

Rehearsals in the band room remain suspended: Erewash will be in tier 3 after the current lockdown ends.

Erewash Film Society

The Erewash Film Society is cancelled until further notice, due to Covid-19.

Notes from the Musical Director

Sadly, the local pandemic situation means that we will be in tier 3 after lockdown and even outdoor rehearsals remain suspended. The good news is that, with vaccinations due to start in December, we can at least look forward to resuming rehearsals in the early months of next year. However, groups of six are permitted to meet in public places (and the middle of road is a public place, although preferably a cul-de-sac for safety) and so some carol playing to friends and neighbours is currently permitted. Rob has done a risk assessment to provide guidelines as to how we should do this; please read this if you are planning to do some carolling. It has been a tough year for everyone: if we all play some carols in our gardens for our neighbours, we can spread some Christmas cheer. We are a community band and I think that our community needs us this year, even more than usual.

Please continue to send your news items to Yeti, our editor. Thank you to those who have already contributed.

A very merry Christmas to you all, and hopefully a much happier New Year than this one!

Stay safe and well everyone xxx

KPHMS Examinations

Unlike any other examination board and in the interests of flexibility the music played in KPHMS examinations can be from the ABRSM, Trinity Guildhall or KPHMS syllabuses. The only stipulation is that it must be on the syllabus for the chosen instrument, at the chosen grade. An accompanist is also provided. For further details, please see Sharon or visit

Sarah Measures

Sarah "I can go faster than my motorbike" Measures has finally had her knee operation following her accident earlier this year. We look forward to her imminent return to the band after taking a rehearsal off to recover.

Ten Years Ago

Zoe

Zoe has a new boyfriend, Will Blurton, whom she loves so much that she withdrew from the Solo, Duet and Quartet competition rather than be late meeting him. And for some reason unknown to us, she turned all bashful and did not want him to come into the club to be introduced!

Emma

As of today (11th December), it is only 116 days to Emma's birthday when, after years of practise, she will finally become a teenager.

We have ordered our new banners and hope to have them in time for the first concert in our centenary year.
